

With Carolyn Fisher

Thursdays 2:30-3:30pm Room 15

Carolyn has written and directed theater productions receiving outstanding merit at a provincial competition in Canada. As a professional mime for over 20 years, Carolyn performed in parades, telethons and sea world as well as taught classes all over East County for the last 20 years. She was the principal reader in a Grossmont College Production in 2009 and taught Public speaking to hundreds of homeschoolers creating the only one of its kind, "Jawsmith", a Public Speaking Camp.

Carolyn brings energy, dynamism and enthusiasm along with her experience to create a fun atmosphere in which your child can explore the wonderful world of Readers Theater! Students will discover this powerful force of expression and gain confidence as they connect with the audience in this media unique to all others. Various skits, monologues, and humorous scenarios will be explored.

A fun time is promised! Contact Carolyn Fisher with questions. Carolyn.fisher@cox.net Contact the office to register for the class.
